ORDER:

Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for Revenue appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus declaring the inaction of the respondents in distributing the patta certificates in favour of the members of the petitioner society, as illegal, and arbitrary.

3. It is the case of the petitioner that certain landless poor persons formed into an association which was registered in 1998. The members of the petitioner-Society applied for house sites. They are the landless poor persons belonging to the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe community. Petitioner-Society made an application and pursuant to the said application respondents conducted a socio-economic survey and found that 176 persons are eligible for providing house sites in Sy.Nos.143, 146, 159 and 160 of Kothapet village. It is stated that previously petitioner-Society filed W.P.No.13614 of 1998 seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondents for allotment of the land of an extent of Ac.3.12 guntas in Sy.Nos.143, 146, 159 and 160 situated at Kothapet village, and the same was disposed of on 11-04-2007 stating that the petitioner cannot choose the land of his own choice for allotment and so long as the selection process is riveted around rational procedures, the Court's jurisdiction is not attracted in such matters and accordingly, it is for the State to put the resources such as the land available with it to the very best and optimum utilization, and the District Administration was directed to fulfill the aspirations of the poorer sections by way of allotment of the houses or house sites as the case may be. It is stated that pursuant to the said representation petitioner filed a representation, dated 28-09-2007, before the District Collector, and the said representation is still pending.

4. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case Writ Petition is disposed of directing the 1st respondent to consider and dispose of the said representation of the petitioner, dated 28-09-2007, in accordance with law as expeditiously as possible without any undue delay. No order as to costs.
